Cooper as a Statesman.

The novelist Cooper was unfortunate in the formation and assertion of his political views, which were aristocratic and unpopular. But in the following, which we cut from his diary, as published in "Putnam," he manifested a sagacity and foresight worthy of a statesman:

"Jefferson himself, though in a different way, betrays the same blindness to truth. He apprehends, for instance, the increasing power of the Executive, under the Constitution, because he has been accustomed to see strong executives in Europe, when the true theory would have taught him that in a Government like ours the power must rest in the popular branch; and as power, like money, has a creative force, the increase of the prerogatives of Congress was far more to be apprehended than those of the President. In point of fact, the latter has neither lost nor gained a single privilege in forty-one years, while the former has often exceeded its proper functions. The representatives of the people are not likely, it is true, to oppress the people, but Congress shows a constant tendency to encroach on the rights of the States. Mr. Jefferson began to see this at the close of his life, and all his jealousy of the President seems to have disappeared."

The Cotton Supply.

English manufacturers profess to be relieved from their chief burden of solicitude in regard to the cotton supply, and feel more confidence that henceforth there will be no disastrous fluctuations in the market comparable to those of the last few years. Not only do the United States in, their opinion, give better promise, on account of the removal of the cotton tax, but intelligence from other quarters strengthens the anticipations of a larger production. Word comes from India that a crop will be realized this season fully equal to that of last year, if not superior. A single province in Brazil will send this year more than a million arrobas of thirty-two pounds each, while other districts are proving their capability of furnishing larger quantities of cotton than they have hitherto done. In Egypt and Turkey the cotton crop, report says, is not likely to be diminished, and favorable accounts come from the West Indies, Africa and Australia; but India in the chief reliance as a competitor of the cotton fields of America. Exertions to this end are in no means relaxed. Those interested in the cotton trade on this side regard the future supply as much less certain than the English reckoning would imply.—N. Y. J. of Commerce.

A Feat of Engineering.

We are informed that the building of the iron bridge over the Great Miami, on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, is considered a rapid feat in railroad construction. This structure required the driving of 3,000 piles, the laying of 6 200 cubic yards of masonry, the dredging of four difficult foundations in a quicksand, and the construction and erection of 630 feet of iron bridge in three spans, and weighing 1,100,000 pounds.—The first train crossed on the 15th of December last—just 120 days from the time the first pile was driven, and nine days and four hours from the time the last stone was put in place. The work was carried on night and day, and the telegraphic communication kept up throughout the whole of the basin drained by the Miami, so that all storms were prepared for hours before they or their effects reached the bridge site. The stone for the mason work, which is all first class ashlar, was quarried fifty two miles from the bridge. The truss is the iron Fink truss, and consists of three spans 210 feet each.

The Reinstatement of Secretary Stanton.

It begins to leak out that the radicals had some other motive in reinstating Secretary Stanton besides that of placing him in the Cabinet as a thorn in the side of President Johnson. It appears that a good many old claims in the War Department, dating from the period of the rebellion, and rejected from time to time as being too outrageous a character to be recognized, are being urged upon him now for payment by some of the men who helped to reinstate him. His predecessor ad inte im did not venture to assume their responsibility, but the present incumbent, judging from the way in which his reinstatement has been effected, may be thought impelled by gratitude to liquidate the claims, even though they relate to impositions of shoddy which could only be tolerated during the war epoch.

The Strange Story—Powell-Burnham.

Some of our exchanges doubt the truth of the strange story we published not long since in regard to the wonderful change of sex of Mrs. Ellen Powell, of Broadhead, Wis., from a woman to a man, she being a few years since a wife, now a husband—then a woman, now a man! We cannot blame people for being incredulous, but the story is a true one. It is too wonderful for belief—it startles even the medical world. We published the article, knowing it sounded too strange to be true—knowing it would be deemed a hoax; but the story is a true one, stranger than fiction, and those who deem it otherwise are the only ones sold. We repeat—on our honor as a journalist, on the honor of a man—the story is true, the former woman is now a man, the former wife is now a husband, etc.—La Crosse Democrat.

Sensible Alaskians.

Brick Pomeroy admires the good sense of the Russian settlers of Alaska, who are leaving that frigid corner of American territory as fast as possible, prefering the despotic rule of the Czar to the blessings of the best government the world ever saw. He says:

"Had they remained until the missionaries and other loyal thieves arrived they would have been plundered, robbed and swindled till not so much as a lump of blubber, nor a remnant of codfish tail would be left to grace their festive boards."

Here is the way they report local matters in the Savannah Republican:—Thomas Robinson was a sailor bold; who ploughed the briny deep, through regions hot, and regions cold, his ventures'd make you weep. Bold Thomas he did run ashore, and took a glass of grog; and then he put down many more, and was lost in fog. Bold Thomas he lay in the street, as drunk as he could be; when Sergeant Green came round the beat, and took him decently. Before the mayor was Thomas brought, quite early yesterday morn; he paid ten dollars for his sport, then sailed off for a horn."

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE. JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Friday, January 31, 1868.

We can imagine no good reason why that portion of the people of North Carolina, opposed to the dogmas and purposes of radicalism, should hesitate to declare themselves Democrats. The principles of the Democratic party, as these principles have been enunciated in the respective State Conventions, held in the Northern States, commend themselves, we believe, to the judgment and favor of a very large majority of our people. They are the principles for which we have been battling since radicalism assumed shape and vitality in North Carolina. If an alliance with the Democratic party required a surrender of a single conscientous conviction, then would such an alliance be disreputable and dishonest. But no such necessity exists. New issues have come with new times. Old things verily have passed away. Therefore are we free to decide upon the claims of parties representing conflicting ideas; and free, when the decision has been made to give it practical effect by action. Quite certain is it, that we have reached a crisis in national affairs. Equally sure are we that great tact, judgment and ability, must be exercised in avoiding the dangers which present themselves. The times are pregnant with danger to republican institutions; and, unless the current of radicalism be speedily and completely arrested, there is no hope for the safety or perpetuity of the government. The great problem of man's capacity for self-government is, just now, receiving its solution. The Constitution is on trial, and the American people are the jurors to decide its fate. The foundation of our political organism is threatened with destruction, Men, drunk with power and blind with hate, have forgotten country, justice, law and truth in a wild, mad contest for power. A fanatical majority in the Congress of the United States, has repudiated the organic law as the guide of their official conduct, and the limit of their powers, and have boldly and defiantly asserted their right to legislate outside of its provisions, in the settlement of the questions originated by the termination of the late war. They have broken their pledges to the country and the world, violated their faith with their own dead; have converted a triumph of the Union into a victory for disunion, and have impiously dared to attempt the reversal of a decree of Almighty God, by proclaiming the equality of those between whom He has established an ineradicable distinction. Upon the hypothesis that the people of the South have neither rights nor privileges they have seized our State governments, and are to-day seeking to place them in the control of the negro and his white ally.

These are the acts and these the dogmas of the Radical party in the Government. To this policy, the Democratic party opposes all its influence, all its energies and all its talent. Briefly declaring the supremacy of the Constitution; the rights of the States to regulate their domestic concerns and its unalterable opposition to the admission of negroes to the privileges of white men, it invites our co-operation and encouragement. Shall we give them? Interest, duty and gratitude demand our hearty compliance. The principles it advocates are the principles which we cherish; its success is our good; its failure, our ruin. If the Democratic party shall be defeated in the coming Presidental campaign, this whole fair land of ours, brought under the blight of negro rule, will become one wide scene of desolation and woe.

We plead for the Democratic party because the Democratic party has pleaded for us, in that most eloquent of languages, the ballot. Amid the gloom and depression of the Spring of 1867, the Democrats of Connecticut thrilled the country by tidings of victory most nobly won. New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Maryland and Kentucky took up and prolonged the notes of triumph. Deep answered unto the deep, and from the golden shores of the Pacific, came back the response of California freemen to the freemen of Connecticut: "This is a white man's government and must be controlled by white men."

The Radicals of New Hampshire are getting badly frightened in regard to the State elections in March. Dispatches from that State indicate the wildest alarm and confusion. The recent defection of a large number of the most intelligent and influential members of the party has created serious apprehension in the minds of their leaders. Gov. Harriman, the Radical candidate has been publicly denounced through the press as unworthy, incompetent and dishonest, by men, who last year gave him their most hearty support.

The bearing of Judge Sinclair, the Democratic nominee, is worthy of his fame and his principles. He is conducting the campaign with singular tact and ability. Defeated last year by Mr. Harriman, there are good reasons to believe that he will be elected this year by a most handsome majority. So great is the Radical alarm that they have been consulting as to the propriety of withdrawing Harriman, and strengthening their ticket by the substitution of the name of the Hon. Arther F. Pike. The good work goes bravely on.

CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION CONVENTION.

[FOURTEENTH DAY.]

RALEIGH, January 30, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Lennon, a member of the Convention.

Journal of preceding day read, corrected and approved.

A communication was read from Dr. Fisher, Superintendant of the Lunatic Asylum, containing an invitation to the Convention to visit that Institution.

Galloway, nigger, from New Hanover, offered a resolution containing instructions to the Committee on Towns. Referred.

Mr. Ashley, from New Hanover, offered a resolution requesting the Committee on Legislature to enquire into the expediency of a Constitutional provision, in favor of mechanics and laborers. Referred.

By the same, a resolution that debts contracted for labor shall have preference of all others. Referred.

Harris (nigger) from Wake, a resolution providing for the assembling of the Convention at 10 instead of 11 o'clock as heretofore. Lies over.

Mr. Logan, an ordinance to change the time of holding the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for Rutherford county. Referred.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, an ordinance laying a tax of seventy-five cents on pol debts. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Teague, a resolution instructing the Committee of three to confer with Gen. Canby, in order to ascertain how far he would recognize the authority of this Convention. Lies over.

Mr. Abbott, from the committee to whom was referred the memorial sent by one Hall, of Sampson county, contesting the seat of Mr. Williams, delegate elected in that county, recommended that the present occupant be "ilted" and that Hall be declared entitled to the seat. Lies on the table.

Mr. Rodman, submitted a report from the committee on "relief," so-called.

Mr. Pool, submitted a report from the committee on suffrage, with a request that it be printed and made the special order for Thursday next at 12 m.

Mr. Rich's resolution calling on Sheriffs for the number of executions and collections thereon was adopted.

Hood (nigger)—not bold Robin—a resolution raising a committee of five to ascertain the names of loyal persons entitled to be relieved of political disabilities.

Mr. Pool moved to amend by striking out five and inserting eight—one for each Judicial district. Amendment accepted.

Mr. Durham moved to amend the resolution so as to require the committee to report the names of all persons disfranchised by act of Congress, that the same might be presented to Congress for the removal of disabilities. Amendment lost.

The resolution as amended by Mr. Pool, was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Aydlott, Baker, Barnes, Benbow, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Carter, Candler, Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Daniel, Dickey, Duckworth, Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, Garland, Garrett, George, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Wayne, Gully, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Heaton, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hood, Hyman, Ing, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, Logan, Mann, May, Mayo, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Patrick, Parks, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, Pool, Ragland, Ray, Renfrow, Rodes, Rich, Robbins, Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilly, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williams, of Wake, Williamson—89.

Noes—Messrs. Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Hare, Hodnett, Holt, Lennon, McCubbins, Merritt, Nicholson, Parker, Read, Tourgee, Williams, of Sampson—16.

Mr. Tourgee objected, and asked that his objections be entered on the Journal.

Harris (nigger) of Wake hoped Mr. Tourgee's desires would not be granted.

Mr. Tourgee then asked that the resolution as amended be read, together with his objections.

Galloway (nigger) hoped that as Mr. Tourgee was desirous of immortalizing himself among the enemy, his protest would be entered upon the Journal.

Mr. Heaton said he deemed it a duty to move that the special order be laid aside, and that the report of the standing committee on State executive officers be taken up and acted upon. He was as warmly in favor of some substantial measure of "relief for the people," as any one in the Convention. He was perfectly aware of the wide spread feeling on the subject. He thought that the vast importance of the subject required that it be fully considered before the Convention acted. He called the attention of the Convention to the great object for which it had assembled; namely, the framing of a Constitution, and thought that it was high time for the body to proceed to the performance of that duty. The people of the State and nation demanded, in thunder tones, that they should at once proceed to give the greatest possible manner of relief by framing a wise, generous and patriotic Constitution.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Washington it was resolved the Convention go into committee of the whole every day at 12 m.

The hour of 12 having arrived the Convention went into committee of the whole, Mr. Jones, of Washington, in the chair.

The report of the committee on State executive officers being the special order,

Mr. Abbott moved that the third section be adopted.

The fourth section was then read.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out from the word "belief" in the fifth line to the word "elected," in the seventh line.

Mr. Heaton, moved to amend by striking out the fifth and sixth lines, and inserting "he will support the Constitution of the United States, and of the State of North Carolina, and honestly and faithfully perform the duties of the office to," which was adopted.

The fifth section was adopted as reported by the committee.

Mr. Abbott moved to amend the sixth section, by striking out "treason and" in the third line, and inserting the word "in," and by striking out all after the word "pardon" in the seventh line, down to the word "reprieve" in the twelfth line.

Mr. Sweet moved to strike out the word "biennially" in the thirteenth line, and to insert the word "annually." Adopted.

Mr. Graham called for a division. He was for a biennial session instead of an annual one. Votes counted, motion lost.

The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth sections were then adopted.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out the whole tenth section, as he was in favor of the old mode of election. He wanted the officers, as far as possible, elected by the people and not by the Senate.

Mr. Hodnett said that this was another innovation to consume time. The section as it stood overturned the old established customs. The people would not be represented—only the Governor and his party.

Sections eleven, twelve and thirteen were then adopted.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out the first five lines in section fourteen.

Mr. McDonald of Chatham favored the amendment.

Mr. Abbott opposed any alteration in the original report.

Mr. Welker was opposed to a Council of State at all—always regarded it as a useless part of the machinery.

The section was adopted as reported.

Sections fifteen and sixteen were adopted.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend the seventeenth section by striking out the word "hereafter," in first line. Adopted.

Mr. Rodman moved to strike out the whole section as it was antagonistic with others, and was unnecessary. Motion prevailed.

Mr. French, of Chowan, moved to amend the eighteenth section by striking out the word "may" in the first line and inserting "shall". Adopted.

Mr. Rodman moved to amend so as to read in second line "Bureau of Statistics, Agriculture and Emigration." Adopted.

Mr. Rodman asked leave to go back to section twelfth and strike out the words "impeachment" in first line, and insert "connection," and after the word "Governor" in same line, insert "upon his impeachment." Motion lost.

Mr. Nicholson moved a reconsideration of the second section. Motion prevailed. He offered a substitute as follows: No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor or Lieutenant-Governor unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, shall have been a citizen of the United States for five years, and shall have been a resident of this State for two years next before the day of election; nor shall the person elected to either of these offices be eligible to the same office more than four years, unless the office shall have been cast upon him as Lieutenant Governor or President of the Senate." Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Rodman, the first section was reconsidered.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend his amendment passed yesterday, by striking out the word "ratification," and inserting "approved," and striking out "thirty days," and inserting "ten days." The section as amended was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Militia was taken up.

Mr. Nicholson moved to amend by striking out all in fifth line of section one, after the word "militia," and inserting "all persons, who have well known conscientious scruples against the performance of military duty, shall be exempted therefrom."

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend by striking out the word "well known," in the first line of the amendment. Lost.

Hood, nigger, moved to amend by striking out the word "may" in the sixth line and inserting "shall." Adopted.

Mr. Pool moved to amend by striking out "such" in fourth line, and inserting "providing that all," and by striking out all in sixth and seventh lines after the word "therefrom," and in sixth line by striking out "exempted" and inserting "exempt." Adopted.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend by striking out the word "military" in fourth line. Adopted.

The section was then adopted as amended.

Second section was adopted.

Mr. Abbott moved to amend the third section by striking out the words "elected by their respective commands," and inserting "appointed"; to strike out all after the word "assembly", and insert the words "and shall hold their commissions until removed in accordance with law, or until others are appointed in their place."

On motion, the Committee rose and reported progress.

On motion of Galloway, (nigger) the Convention adjourned.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The National Democratic Executive Committee will meet on the 22nd of February next, to fix the time and place of meeting of the National Democratic Nominating Convention. The following gentlemen have informed the Chairman that they will be present and represent their States in the meeting: John S. Millson of Virginia; Hon. Wm. Aiken of South Carolina; Hon. Wm. L. Sharkey of Mississippi; Geo. G. Houston of Alabama; John Hancock of Texas; A. H. Chappell of Georgia; Judge Marvin of Florida; A. B. Greenwood of Arkansas; Joseph McCorkie of Nevada; Thomas Sweeney of West Virginia; Joseph Patrick of Nebraska and Edmund Cooper of Tennessee.

ARE THERE ANY "SHAKERS" IN NEW HANOVER?

During the consideration of the Militia bill on yesterday, in reply to the representatives of the Friends or Quakers and Dunkers, asking that those sects might be exempted from performing military duty, Mr. Abbott, from New Hanover stated that he did not know what this latter sect was, but he supposed they were about the same as the Shakers "in his country."

Now we know somewhat of the New Hanover people, and when the gentleman from that county intimated that there were Shakers there, we think he either mistook the people he assumes to represent, or he alluded to New England, which is really his country, and whose people are those whom General Abbott really represents in this North Carolina Convention!

A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE.

The declaration of a delegate to our nigger Convention, that the entire people of the State was assembled here in one grand mass meeting, was a figure of speech, and we suppose must have been so intended. But the idea meant to be conveyed was an erronous one; in point of fact, a deliberate, premeditated and base slander upon the people of North Carolina.

A Convention of the people of North Carolina, indeed! A Convention of the niggers of the State, we grant. A Convention, if a Convention it may be called, of ignorance, vice, hatred and revenge. A Convention of unprincipled and debased white men, and deluded and demoralized niggers. But not a Convention of the respectable people of North Carolina.

Who in that body, "the wisest and most respectable ever convened in the State" represents the white men of North Carolina? In that party claiming to be of the people, not an individual can be found representing the intelligence, moral worth and virtue of our people.

Destitute of moral character, wanting in everything that constitutes honor or self respect, this arrogant majority sneers at our customs, ridicules our history, and with the fiendish delight of demons, destroys the work to which a Gaston devoted a life time.

A Convention of North Carolina, it may be in the estimation of those who called it into being, but it will not be so "handed down to the archives of gravity."

THE ASSASSIN RECONSTRUCTED.

It is a pleasant thing to note reform. Hence it is with pleasure and surprise that we record the conversion of the loyal assassin and press exterminator, Galloway.

With a bran new, bright and unstained escutcheon, appreciating the necessities of the hour, and rising above the littleness of us common mortals, the delegate from New Hanover has buried his hatchet amid the majestic old oaks that once shaded his predecessor, the noble Holmes, converted his knife into a political pruning hook which he promises to use both effectually and judiciously, and gone to work earnestly to building railroads for the relief of the people.

It must be a source of considerable relief to our respected neighbor and cotemporary to witness the above facts, after having passed so many sleepless, weary hours in dread suspense of a final end.

We congratulate our neighbor, and to the loyal and reformed delegate we say, go on in your good work, and sin no more.

If any body wants to know how a horse feels on a bitter morning, when a frozen bit is placed in his mouth, let them first place a piece of frozen iron upon their own tongues. Having done this, let the coachman or driver see that the bit is warmed before being fixed in position. The horse will look, though he cannot say, "thank you."—Philadelphia Gazette.

A progressive person nominates President Woolsey, of Yale, for next President, and John Minor Botts for Vice President.

CITY AND STATE.

Quiet.

The record at the Mayor's office yesterday evinced a remarkable state of order, and quiet ruling throughout the City, during the late hours of Wednesday night and early yesterday morning—two men, one a discharged soldier, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were locked up and detained the usual time, and on promise of future good behavior were released from confinement, and went on their way wiser, and we hope, better men. The usual amount of theft was reported as occurring in and about the City during the night.

An Ungrateful Darkey.

Willis Hartsfield, has proven himself an ungrateful wretch—he has gone back on the hand that fed him—robbed the "buro" in fact.

Willis was before the Mayor yesterday, charged with breaking into a house and stealing therefrom, forty blankets and twenty-five pair of shoes, the property of the Freedmen's Bureau in this City.

Willis confessed the theft, but did not explain why he took the clothes.

The Mayor sent him on to the Superior Court of Wake.

Sons of Mars Arrested for Stealing.

Officer Thompson, late yesterday evening, "on a dead run and much blown," finally succeeded in capturing privates James Davis, of company A, Fifth cavalry, and James Graham, of company E, eighth infantry, who were complained of at the mayor's office for having broken into a house on the lot of Mr. Hanson, corner of Martin and Blount streets, and stealing therefrom a set of ladies' furs belonging to a mulatto woman; an instance of disloyalty betokening an evident and pressing necessity for a contrivance of the "buro," a la Miles.

Following an Illustrious Royal Example.

Plain Miranda Pool, hue d' Afrique, having heard much talk about the thriving business which her illustrious and royal benefactress, the unhappy relict of the "late lamented" was driving at the old clo's and rag business determined to set up for herself in Raleigh.

Having been in no position to award fat contracts, collectorships, etc., Miranda had not accumulated a stock of point laces, furbelows, flounces and flummery embracing the various oriental styles and fashions, and so she determined to add interest and variety to her collection from the well filled trunk of Amy Perkins.

Now, Aunt Amy is a good, old-fashioned darkey, neat and comely, as the old set always was, and they do say that since Sir Handy condescended to compliment her personal appearance, at church, some time ago, that Aunt Amy has bestowed much time and attention to her wardrobe and general "get up." Consequently, Miranda made a very good haul, but for having been overhauled before she had been allowed time to number and prepare a brief history of each article composing the rare and interesting collection, a la Mrs. Abe L. Clark.

Acting with as little feeling in the matter as was manifested by the local authorities of those cities New Englandward, which so peremptorily denied the relict of the "late lamented" the privilege of "showing" in public, Aunt Amy appealed to his Honor, the Mayor, who had Miranda torn from her booth and brought forth.—Here it turned out that the Perkins-Pool collection of "old clo's" had already been placed in the hands of a receiving broker, who had broke and spirited himself away with the "collection" of curiosities.

So the show is broken up, the performance will not begin; and aunt Amy will not be in her place at church next Sunday, to receive the approving smile of the "model of deportment" Sir Handy.

Theft in the City.

Robbing and petty thieving is on the increase throughout the entire city, and the authorities are powerless to restrain or check it.

As we are not allowed to enforce the vagrant act, it is hardly to be supposed that an idle population of niggers, like that with which Raleigh is cursed, can find means of subsistence otherwise than by stealing.

Idle vagabonds are found congregated at every street corner, and when offered work, at remunerative wages, not one in twenty will perform the slightest labor for any consideration or inducement that may be offered. But lounging round the Halls and crowding the galleries of the Convention, which, they suppose, is called for their benefit exclusively, they prefer to idle away their time during the day, depending upon stealing enough to appease their hunger at night.

What this class of deluded persons expect from the Convention now sitting in Raleigh, it is impossible to say. They have no idea, themselves, beyond a vague hope of something that will redound to their advantage, and advancement, politically and socially. They look anxiously and confidently for some great scheme of legislation that is to place them all in affluent and independent circumstances, pecuniarily. The black people of the South have been taught this idea, and encouraged and advised to the very course they are now pursuing by that class of philanthropists many of whom are members of that nigger Convention, which to-day disgraces in the legislative halls of North Carolina.

How long this state of things is to last, no one can tell, and what remedy is best to apply to this wide spread demoralization, it is almost impossible to say. Loyalists suggest reconstruction as the only means by which we can escape "the evils we bear, and flee to those we wot not of" but many of these philanthropic missionaries to the Southern heathen, are growing weak and faint in their good work, since the children of the lost tribe to which they are sent manifest a painful indifference as to whose substance they steal, so it commands the wherewith. But we shall soon be in possession of the great boon of reconstruction, compared with which, all other blessings sink into utter insignificance.

Unsoldierly.

Private Dawson, of Co. E. 8th Infantry, was locked up for disorderly conduct and indecent exposure of his person on Fayetteville street, while in a state of intoxication. Turned over to the military authorities.

Maj. Davis, of Massachusetts, formerly of Gen. Butler's staff, committed suicide at Hong Cong, China, Novemcer 24, 1867, by shooting himself in the head. Cause, pecuniary embarrassment.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of our appreciation for the zealous, faithful and effective service of John S. Thrasher, Esq., as Superintendent of this Association in years past, we hereby tender him the thanks of this Association, and confer upon him the complimentary position of Agent of the Southern Press Association in the City of New York.

The terms of commendation employed in the above resolution do no more than justice to your important services during your Superintendency—service which none had better opportunity to know, and none can more highly appreciate than myself. The North Carolinian.

Raleigh, Friday, January 31, 1868.

Laying A Foundation Stone.

"The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee."

After harvest dews and harvest moonshine,
Lay the stone beneath this autumn sunshine;
Ere the winter frosts the leaves are thinning,
Let the workmen see the work's beginning;
Let the slender pillars, rising higher,
Catch new glimpses of the sunset fire,
And the sheltering walls, fresh beauty showing,
Day by day be strengthening and growing;
Though full many a weary task be meted
Ere the perfect fabric is completed.

Work in faith, good neighbor beside good neighbor,
Work, and trust Heaven's smile upon the labor;
Aye, though we who in sunshine stand here,
Joining voice to voice, and hand to hand here,
Ere the moss has grown o'er wall and column,
Shall be sleeping in a silence solemn,
Or in clear light and purer air,
Busy about His business, other where.

Aye, though in mystery of mysteries,
Lying underneath our strange world histories,
'Midst of labor earnest, wise and fervent,
The good Master may call many a servant,
Sudden rest may fall on wearied sinews;
Workers droop and die—the work continues
God names differently what we name "failing,"
In a glory mist his purpose vailing—
One by one He moves us, hands anointed
By His hands, to do our task appointed,
But the dimness of our fleshy poison
Hides the total splendor of the vision.

Grant us, Lord, behind that vail to feel Thee
In our humble life work to reveal Thee;
Doing what we can do, and believing
One, with Thee, are giving and receiving.

So, this happy sunshine the act gilding,
Lay the stone, and may God bless the building!

By the Author of "John Halifax, Gentleman."

Clippings.

It is said that Henry J. Raymond is to write a history of General Grant, assisted by Swinton.

The Radicals will loose twenty white States in their struggle for ten blacks ones.

De Bow's Review has been committed to the charge of William M. Burwell, Esq., editor-in-chief, with R. G. Barnwell, editor and general agent.

Colonel Jos. V. Bemusdaffer, a native of Loudoun county, Va., has been nominated by the Democratic State Convention of Indiana for State auditor.

The Radicals of Tennessee talk of building a mansion for Brownlow. His father, the devil, has one ready for him—well protected from the cold.—Prentice.

The Providence Journal, one of the ablest Republican papers in New England, deprecates pointedly the act of Congress in relation to the Supreme Caurt.

Stanton has to be kicked out of office as a hound is kicked out of a dining-room, and, like the hound, sneaks in again the first time the door is left open.—Louisville Jounal.

Prof. Seeley, the author of "Ecce Homo," is lecturing in England on "Milton's Political Opinions." He is very youthful in appearance, his figure is slight, and his features almost feminine in their faultless regularity and delicacy.

It is stated that the Democrats of the Ohio Legislature, in caucus at Columbus, on Thursday last, decided not to press the projected rearrangement of the Congressional districts of that State.

Thad. Stevens stated in the House, Monday, that under the name of "stationery" some members had procured pantaloons and shirts enough to last them for years, and that some members had run up stationery account of $1,000!

A young lady went out with a rather timid beau sleighing one evening, complacantly remarking to him that she seldom went a-sleighing but she got chaps on her lips. The young man took the hint, and chapped.

Mr. Lincoln appointed five of the judges now upon the Bench of the Supreme Court, and yet his friends will not trust them. This is paying but little respect to the memory of the "late lamented" head of the Radical party.—Philadelphia Age.

A correspondent traveling in Utah says that the waters of Great Salt Lake rose last year three feet above their former level, and are still slowly but surely rising. The lake drains an immense district, and has no visible outlet. Perhaps the modern Sodom will be submerged as was the old one.

The Mobile Times has taken down the names of Grant and Fessenden, heretofore flying at its mast-head, as its preference for President and Vice President. The Times does not understand that kind of "horse talk" which its favorite used in his celebrated conversation with the President, concerning the reinstatement of Stanton.

Senator Doolittle's star reply to Senator Nye, of Nevada, when asked whether he would march under the "Old Glory" or the Stars and Bars was: "I would march," said Doolittle, "under a flag having thirty-seven stars!" Nye had to fall back under the shelter of his Jacobin flag of only twenty-seven stars for protection, amid the laughter and applause of the galleries.—New York Herald.

George Francis Train demands half a million dollars for his sufferings in British dungeons, and has carried the matter into the law courts; but the New York Times says, the astute Disraeli has put up the British Government to claim an off-set in the value of the advertisement given to Train. The perfidious sons of Albion have the brass to say that Train owes them a surplus on the account.

The New York Express says that one of the Radical Senators in Congress, who claims to be a regular "Roundhead," on being remonstrated, with the other day in that city over the monstrous, radical, and destructive legislation now afflicting the country, coolly replied: "You haven't seen half yet"—a sentiment quite worthy of Robespierre and the very worst of the Sans Culottes of the French Revolution.

The Springfield Republican thinks the new Supreme Court bill too narrow in its scope, and suggests that it be amended so as to prohibit that court from meddling in any way with any act which this Congress may pass. In this way it will provide for all possible contingencies and establish a precedent which will be of inestimable value to any party that may control Congress hereafter, and want to pass measures of unquestionable unconstitutionality. Each Congress can thus take care of itself.

Horace Greeley relates the following in his "recollections." A gushing youth once wrote to this effect:

"Dear Sir—Among your literary treasures, you have doubtless preserved several autographs of our country's late lamented poet, Edgar A. Poe. If so, and you can spare one, please inclose it to me, and receive the thanks of yours, truly."

I promptly rdsponded as follows:

"Dear Sir—Among my literary treasures, there happens to be exactly one autograph of our country's late lamented poet, Edgar A. Poe. It is his note of hand for $50, with my endorsement across the back. It cost me exactly $50 75 (including the protest,) and you may have it for half that amount. Yours, respectfully."

That autograph, I regret to say, remains on my hands, and is still for sale at the original price, despite the lapse of time, and the depreciation of our currency.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

ATLANTA, GA., April 19, 1867.

J. S. THRASHER, ESQ.—DEAR SIR: It affords me much pleasure to communicate to you the following resolution of the Southern Press Association:

Resolved, That as a testimonial of our appreciation for the zealous, faithful and effective service of John S. Thrasher, Esq., as Superintendent of this Association in years past, we hereby tender him the thanks of this Association, and confer upon him the complimentary position of Agent of the Southern Press Association in the City of New York.

The terms of commendation employed in the above resolution do no more than justice to your important services during your Superintendency—service which none had better opportunity to know, and none can more highly appreciate than myself. Should occasion require, I shall be glad to avail myself of the aid provided for by the resolution.

Very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
